Artist, Activist, Satirist, Professional Speaker

Looking for a speaker with passion and purpose to ignite your audience and leave them with a totally new perspective? Need someone completely original to stimulate, inspire, and empower them to new heights of independent thinking?

Please take a moment to consider Joey Skaggs, a provocative and notorious international commentator who will knock their socks off. Get an in-depth behind-the-scenes look at his creative process as he challenges the status quo and get your audience working for positive change.

Skaggs is a globally renowned artist who has carved a special niche in the worlds of comedy and social activism. For years he has been creating humorous and satirical hoaxes that target the critical social issues that affect each and every one of us every day. His work addresses cultural intolerance and insensitivity; sex and violence in the media; inequities in the American judicial system; the misuse of power and authority by government and big business; and mass media manipulation.

Joey Skaggs combines humor, storytelling, wisdom, and practicality in his presentations and, through his wit, warmth, insight, and realism, he inspires and motivates his audiences.
