Subject: Re: Pranksters Application

Hi Joey. So as we discussed, the show is sort of a standard competition/elimination style reality show. However, the focus is really on the pranks, not filmed interactions between the pranksters. So you won't be living together in a house. Also, you will have resources to help you with the pranks that you do on the show. Not exactly sure what the budgets will be, but we would help provide you with the resources you need whether it is people, permits, ect. The Executive Producer is George Moll and the production company is Magic Molehill productions. Hope this helps with some of your questions. Let me know if I missed anything major and again, I can go over all the details I know at this point with you on the phone.

Thanks!

I understand, but if you can at least send me some basic info, it would be very helpful. Then I'll get back to you.

Best,

Joey

Hi Joey. I'd love to speak with you further about the show. Unfortunately, because it's a new show, I'm not supposed to email or put in writing details about the show (sorry for the annoying legal stuff), but I can definitely answer your questions over the phone. Feel free to call me when you have a free moment. Also, just to give you a heads up, if you are interested in the show, we are hoping to get all the application materials back by November 8.

Thanks,

Hi Suzanne,

Sorry to miss your call today. Things have been busy. The best way to reach me these days is by email.

Thanks,

Joey
