Party! March in NYC's April Fools' Day Parade: Friday, April 1, 2011, Noon, 5th Ave. & 59th St. to Washington Square

(March 09, 2011)

New York, NY (PRWEB) March 9, 2011

The 26th Annual April Fools Day Parade will begin at Fifth Avenue and 59th Street at 12 noon, Friday, April 1, 2011. Rain or shine, the parade will march down Fifth Avenue to Washington Square Park for the post-parade festivities and selection of the King or Queen of Fools from the costumed marching look-alikes.

Says organizer Joey Skaggs, "The April Fools' Day Parade is a fun way for the general public to creatively vent their outrage over the social and political craziness of the year.

The theme for this years parade is If It Wasnt For Bad Luck Id Have No Luck At All. The parade will kick off with a Bob Dylan classic A Hard Rain's A-Gonna Fall sung by the very vocal WTF! Chorus including General Stanley McChrystal, ex-Republican Party Chairman Michael Steele, actors Lindsay Lohan and Charlie Sheen, Representative Charlie Rangel, and deposed Egyptian President Hosni Mubarek look-alikes. Color commentary will be provided by Governor Mike Huckabee. It may be inaccurate but it will be colorful.

This will be followed by a motorized 30-foot miniature of the USS Enterprise commanded by Captain Honor projecting lewd and lascivious videos for the crowd to see. The Pope will make an appearance in his new decked-out Pimpmobile tossing colored condoms Mardi Grasstyle to the crowd. Throughout the parade fleeing Arab Dictators and Tyrants will dash along carrying bulging suitcases overstuffed with American dollars. The Topeka Westborough Baptist Church float will bring up the rear protesting everything and damning everyone to Hell.

The marching celebrity look-alikes will include Wisconsin Governor Scott Walker shouting Screw Unions!; Topless Representative Chris Lee asking Anyone seen my shirt?; Reverend George Rekers with his rent-boy asking for forgiveness; Texas Republican Representative Joe Barton apologizing to BP for the U.S. government shakedown; South Carolina Democratic candidate Alvin Greene asking What? The New York April Fools Day Parade was created in 1986 to remedy a glaring omission in the long list of New Yorks ethnic and holiday parades. These events fail to recognize the importance of April 1st, the day designated to commemorate the folly of mankind. In an attempt to bridge this gap and bring people back in touch with their inherent foolishness, the parade annually crowns a King or Queen of Fools from parading look-alikes. The King of Fools from the 2010 parade was Glenn Beck.

The public is encouraged to participate, in or out of costume, with or without floats, and may join the procession at any point along the parade route. Floats can be no wider than 10 and no longer than 30. They can be self-propelled, towed, pushed or pulled. Customized bicycles, tricycles, baby carriages and aerial balloons are welcome. All participants are costumed look-alikes, and the Parade Committee assumes no liability for damages caused by satire. Parade floats and marchers must be at 59th Street and Fifth Ave no later than 11:30 a.m.

We are grateful to the Koch Brothers, Donald Trump, the NY State Council on the Arts, National Endowment for the Arts and Mayor Michael Bloomberg for their annual support. We also welcome WPIX-TV, who will sponsor the live telecast this year.

The King of Fools will be chosen based on the loudest cheers at Washington Square Park. The winner will reign through March 31, 2012.
